FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LifeNet4Families Appoints New Chairman to Board of Directors

Longstanding board member and community partner Rocki Rockingham elected as leader

Lauderhill, FL (March 29, 2021) — LifeNet4Families (LN4F) is pleased to announce that the LN4F Board of Directors has elected a new Chair, Rocki Rockingham who will serve for a one-year term effective January 1, 2021. She succeeds Scott May who served as board chair in 2020, and continues to serve on the Board Executive Committee.

“It was a great honor to serve as board chair, and I thank the LN4F Board of Directors for the opportunity,” said Scott May. “I join with my fellow board directors in extending our congratulations to Rocki Rockingham on becoming the new board chair. I am very confident that under Rocki’s leadership, the LN4F Board will continue to make a positive difference in the organization’s mission and impact.”

Rocki Rockingham is an accomplished C-suite human resources, communications, community relations, public affairs, and marketing communications professional with over 30 years of domestic and international business experience. She has been responsible for the highest level of strategic HR and communications at several Fortune 500 companies.

“I am mission focused and look forward to working with my Board colleagues to move LN4F’s agenda forward,” said Rockingham, who is a long-serving member of the Board. “I want to thank the LN4F Board of Directors for its confidence in me to serve as board chair, and I especially thank Scott May for his leadership during an extremely challenging period in our organization’s and country’s history. Together with our board of directors, staff, and stakeholders, we are making a positive difference and continue our work as a leading agency providing comprehensive services for the most vulnerable in our community.”

“Rocki is a strong community leader and has been a champion for the underserved for decades. I am looking forward to working alongside her as we develop and expand programs and services,” said Melanie Geddes, President & CEO of LN4F. “Congratulations to our newly-elected Chair, Rocki Rockingham. My thanks to Scott May for his leadership as outgoing Board Chair. With the support of our Board and the dedicated work of our staff, LN4F continues to serve as the gateway to stability for the economically disadvantaged. This includes expanding our services to the community, increasing attendance in our programs and raising our voices on the issues of hunger, food insecurity, homelessness and poverty.”

About LifeNet4Families: LifeNet4Families’ mission is to provide a gateway to stability for people in Broward County experiencing hunger, homelessness and poverty. While reducing hunger is the primary goal of the organization, LifeNet4Families works to help individuals regain or maintain stability by providing them with access to on-site shower facilities, haircuts, clothing, counseling, referrals, job readiness preparation, emergency financial assistance, mailing address usage, and mail retrieval services.
